United Way of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley Announces 2013 Campaign Incentive Winners

The United Way of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley wants to thank all those who helped them exceed the 2013 Campaign goal by raising $2,505,449.

This year, donors of $156 or more to the United Way of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley qualified for the 2013 Campaign Incentive prizes, which were sponsored by Window World owned by Fred and Pat Moran. Angie Moran, Pat's wife, drew the winners' names at a press conference held Wednesday February 12, 2014 at their retail location on Southern Boulevard.

Rhonda M. Huff of Youngstown and member of UAW 1112 won the $2,000 Travel Certificate from AAA.

Robert McGaha of Campbell and member of UAW 1112 won the $1,000 Giant Eagle GetGo Gas Card.

Kevin Shingleton of Canfield and employee of Ohio Cat Company won the $500 Dick's Sporting Goods Gift Card.

As another campaign incentive this year, Greenwood Chevrolet donated a 2014 Chevrolet Cruze Turbo Diesel. All donors of $156 or more to the 2013 campaign for the United Way of Youngstown and the Mahoning Valley or United Way of Trumbull County qualified for this drawing. A total of ten finalists, five from each United Way, will have an opportunity to win the Chevrolet Cruze during the car giveaway event scheduled for Tuesday, February 25th at 5:30 p.m. at Greenwood Chevrolet in Austintown.
